

Shri Annasaheb Sahastrabudhe Anudanit Prathamik/Madhyamik Ashram School

Kushtarog Niwaran Samiti Shantivan is surrounded by tribal area. The tribals from this villages sometime migrating in search of work. The childrens also migrating with their parents. Hence they were not getting proper education. The adivasi children belong to the poorest strata of society. Taking into consideration of the situation Kushtarog Niwaran Samiti established Shri Annasaheb Sahastrabudhe Anudanit Prathamik/Madhyamik Ashram School in the year 1994

It is the residential school for tribal boys & girls. The school was started from Primary to Secondary school i.e. 1st std. to 10th std. We providing all the facilities as per the state government norms to the residential school children. The school is recognised by the tribal dept. of Maharashtra State. At present 400 tribal students and 100 day scholar students are taking advantages of educational activities free of cost.

There are 10 class rooms, science laboratory, two separate hostels (1 for boys & 1 for girls), big dinning hall, english language lab. library, computer room available for benefit of students. There are 13 teachers and 13 non-teaching staff are available in the school.

Apart from education Samiti encouraging students to take part in the sports and other cultural activities. The some of the students won many prizes while participating in the various games organised at taluka & district level. The samiti also giving scholarships to the students to take further education.

The committee is trying their best to bring these advasi students in the main stream of the society.
